

Employment Contract

This contract, dated on the 25th day of January in the year 2023, is made between M & D Staffing Solution LLP and _____ of _____. This document constitutes an employment agreement between these two parties and is governed by the laws of (Maryland).

WHEREAS the Employer desires to retain the services of the Employee, and the Employee desires to render such services, these terms and conditions are set forth. IN CONSIDERATION of this mutual understanding, the parties agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. Employment

The Employee agrees that he or she will faithfully and to the best of their ability to carry out the duties and responsibilities communicated to them by the Employer. The Employee shall comply with all company policies, rules and procedures at all times.

2. Permanent Position Discussion: The Employee will Report to the Agency any attempt, request or conversation of any sort pertaining to becoming permanent Staff of any of our clients or institution where he or she has been assigned to work. Or know if. Every conversation pertaining to becoming a permanent Staff of any of our clients should be negotiated between M & D staffing Solution LLP and the aforementioned.

3. Position

As a Registered Nurse, it is the duty of the Employee to perform all essential job functions and duties. From time to time, the Employer may also add other duties within the reasonable scope of the Employee's work.

4. Compensation

As compensation for the services provided, the Employee shall be paid a wage of $55.00 per hour and will be subject to a quarterly/annual performance review. All payments shall be subject to mandatory employment deductions (State & Federal Taxes, Social Security, Medicare). Unless otherwise agreed.

5. Benefits

The Employee has the right to participate in any benefits plans offered by the Employer. Access to these benefits will only be possible after the probationary period has passed.

6. Probationary Period

It is understood that the first 90 days of employment constitutes a probationary period. During this time, the Employee is not eligible for paid time off or other benefits. During this time, the Employer also exercises the right to terminate employment at any time without advanced notice.

7. Bereavement leave may be granted if necessary. The employer reserves the right to modify any paid time off policies.

8. Termination

It is the intention of both parties to form a long and mutually profitable relationship. However, this relationship may be terminated by either party at any time provided two weeks written notice is delivered to the other party.

The Employee agrees to return any Employer property upon termination.

1. Non-Competition and Confidentiality

As an Employee, you will have access to confidential information that is the property of the Employer. You are not permitted to disclose this information outside of the Company.

During your time of Employment with the Employer, you may not engage in any negotiation to work for any of our clients without informing the Employer. All negotiation or discussion about permanent employment with any of our clients should be held by the Employer. Failure to adhere to this policy could stem into a lawsuit and potential fees for the Employer's losses. You will fully disclose to your Employer any other Employment relationships that you have and you will be permitted to seek other employment provided that (a.) it does not detract from your ability to fulfill your duties, and (b.) you are not assisting another organization in competing with the employer.

It is further acknowledged that upon termination of your employment, you will not solicit business from any of the Employer's clients for a period of at least 2 year.

1. Entirety

This contract represents the entire agreement between the two parties and supersedes any previous written or oral agreement. This agreement may be modified at any time, provided the written consent of both the Employer and the Employee.

2. Legal Authorization

The Employee agree that he or she is fully authorized to work in the USA and can provide proof of this with legal documentation. This documentation will be obtained by the Employer for legal records.

3. Severability

The parties agree that if any portion of this contract is found to be void or unenforceable, it shall be struck from the record and the remaining provisions will retain their full force and effect.

4. Jurisdiction

This contract shall be governed, interpreted, and construed in accordance with the laws of (Maryland).

In witness and agreement whereof, the Employer has executed this contract with due process through the authorization of official company agents and with the consent of the Employee, given here in writing.
